Domenick A. Cama was appointed Chief Operating Officer (COO) of Investors Bank effective January 1, 2008 serving as the Bank’s primary operating officer. On January 1, 2011 he was appointed to the Board of Directors. In his role as COO, Mr. Cama works closely with other members of the executive management team to manage the daily operations of the Company. He also works with the Bank’s Board Members and Chief Executive Officer in setting and implementing the strategic direction for the company.

Prior to 2008, he served as the Bank’s Chief Financial Officer (CFO). During his tenure as CFO, Mr. Cama had primary responsibility for the Company’s successful conversion to a publicly traded stock company. Most recently, the Company completed one of the largest capital raises for a publically traded thrift - raising over $2.2 billion.

The Bank’s outstanding level of performance was recognized as one of the top 25 performing, publicly traded, small-cap banks in the U.S. on Sandler O‘Neill’s “Bank & Thrift Sm-All Stars” report for three consecutive years beginning in 2011. Investors was included on Fortune’s “Top 100 Fastest Growing Companies” list in 2012 and was also named on Forbes’ “Best Banks in America” list for three consecutive years beginning in 2012.

Domenick has served as the Essex County Heart Walk Survivor Ambassador for the American Heart Association, as well as acted as the organization’s media spokesperson and was the key speaker at many of their New Jersey events. In 2011, Mr. Cama was recognized by the Raritan Bay Medical Center Foundation as Executive of the Year and was honored by the Center for Italian and Italian American Culture (CIIAC) as the Man of the Year. In addition, he was recently honored by The Federation of Italian-American Organizations (FIAO) as the Man of the Year and was the recipient of the 2014 Shuey Horowitz Humanitarian Award from HomeSharing.

Mr. Cama serves on the board of directors for the Madison YMCA, the Raritan Bay Medical Center Foundation and the CIIAC. Mr. Cama holds a Bachelors degree in Economics and a Masters degree in Finance from Pace University. Domenick is a Brooklyn native and currently resides in Northern New Jersey with his wife, Wendy, and has three children.

With an outstanding reputation in the building maintenance industry and 24 years of hard work, Joseph K. Collins founded Collins Building Services, Inc. In the last 27 years, Joe and his CBS family has grown the tri-state area company into an industry leader, employing over 2,000 full time employees.

Born and raised in Queens, Joe attended high school there and after graduating began his career in service as a Sealtest Milkman. Joe served in the United States Army until 1959, and after being honorably discharged he returned to work for Sealtest while taking evening classes at Baruch College.

Joe forged his reputation in the NYC building service industry by serving as President for several commercial maintenance companies. In 1988 he assembled an elite team and founded Collins Building Services, Inc. CBS has proven itself as the best vehicle for Joe to express his dedication to service, his leadership by caring and his consistent generosity -- excellence in service to his clients, his community and his family has been his guiding principle throughout his life.

Today, as Joe remains at the helm of CBS, he is active in several other professional and volunteer endeavors. He is a long standing Allied member of the Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA). Joe also serves on several nonprofit boards including: Outreach Project, the Clark Gillies Foundation and The Thomas Hartman Foundation for Parkinson’s Disease Research.

His service to organizations has earned him well deserved recognition and awards, including the Covenant House Lifeline Humanitarian Award, the Outreach Project Award, and Grand Marshall of the Rockville Centre St. Patrick’s Parade benefiting Project Children, the Boomer Esaison Foundation and the Friends of Rockville Center 911 Memorial Foundation. Joe also finished as a finalist in the Ernst and Young Entrepreneur of the Year Awards Program. He has garnished Honoree accolades from Telecare, Christa House and the annual Sisters of St. Joseph Gala. He continues to be a strong supporter of the Sisters of Saint Joseph, St. Francis College Scholarship Fund, the Cure for Sure for Parkinson’s research and the Swing for the Cure for Pancreatic Cancer Research.

Joe resides in Plainedge, New York with his loving wife of 51 years, Peggy.
