

Position: Assistant Professor of Finance (Tenure Track)

Department: Management and Information Technology

Reports to: Department Chair, Management and Information Technology

Anticipated Start Date: Fall 2017

Job Summary: Candidates should be strongly committed to teaching in an interdisciplinary undergraduate business and information technology program. Scholarly research and external grant activity is also required. The normal teaching load per academic year is twelve credits in each Fall and Spring semester. This appointment also includes research, student advisement, College service, and professional development.

Qualifications:

- Ph.D. or D.B.A. in finance or related field from an accredited institution at the time of application is required;
- Applicants from finance and management related fields will be considered. We have particular interest in candidates with expertise in finance and operations research;
- Candidates must submit with their initial application for this position, the following documents: cover letter, curriculum vitae, at least two writing samples, and three letters of recommendation.

Please note that while we are commencing with recruitment efforts for this position, it is understood that hiring will be contingent on funding and enrollment.

About St. Francis College:

For over 150 years, the mission of St. Francis has been to provide an affordable, quality education to working class people who otherwise may not be able to attend college. St. Francis College is a private, independent, co-educational urban college whose Franciscan and Catholic traditions underpin its commitment to academic excellence, spiritual and moral values, physical fitness, social responsibility and life-long learning. We educate the whole person for a full, relational life, developing the students' talents and abilities for meaningful, fulfilling careers, as well as for collaborative, service-oriented leadership.

The College strives to offer ample opportunities for students to immerse themselves in the intellectual, cultural and professional opportunities afforded by New York City and to serve the needs of the local community in which they live and study. Our location in Brooklyn Heights provides a confluence of cultures and religious beliefs, mirroring our commitment to maintain and celebrate our diverse student body.

St. Francis College is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity employer and we are strongly committed to increasing the diversity of our faculty, students, and the curriculum. Qualified candidates of diverse ethnic and racial backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants can apply by clicking here.