2020-2021 Paying for College

When you look at the quality and cost of a St. Francis College education, you see right away that it is a tremendous value. But still, the cost of a college education is a significant investment that should be carefully considered.

If you think you will need assistance to pay for educational expenses, we recommend that you apply for financial aid. While you and your family have the primary responsibility of paying for your education, funding is available from the college, federal, and state to help you pay college expenses. These expenses include tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies, and transportation.

Types of Financial Assistance

Grants – Money that does not have to be repaid and is usually based on financial need.

Merit Bases Scholarships – Money that does not have to be repaid and usually is awarded on the basis of academic merit.

Need Based Aid – A grant that is determined by a families combined AGI, number in household and number college as determined by the FAFSA.

Loans – Money that is borrowed for college and must be repaid with interest.

Work-Study – Money earned from a job provided by the Financial Aid Office at the college.

Financial Aid Applications

To determine whether you are eligible for financial aid, you must complete the following applications each year:

1. FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) Visit https://studentaid.gov/ to apply for federal financial aid
2. NYSTAP (New York State Tuition Assistance Program) Visit www.hesc.ny.gov to apply for state financial aid.

Eight Steps to Apply

Step1: Prepare to Apply

Gather copies of the records of you and your parent(s’)* income and assets. These records include: your prior-prior year’s income tax returns, Social Security numbers, W-2 form(s) and any other records of income and assets. Tax information can be estimated and corrected later if your tax return has not yet been completed.

Step 2: Get a FSA ID - fsaid.ed.gov

A FSA ID is a username and password that you must use to log in, sign and make corrections to your FAFSA. You and at least one of your parents will each need a FSA ID. Be sure to save your FSA ID as you will need it to reapply and access your information each year.

*If you are a student currently in foster care or have a history in the foster care system please contact your agency for assistance.

Step 3: Complete the FAFSA - https://studentaid.gov/

Applying for federal student aid is free. You can apply before you have been admitted to SFC, starting October 1st of your senior year of high school. To apply visit https://studentaid.gov/.

Step 4: IRS Data Retrieval Tool

The IRS Data Retrieval Tool allows you and your parents to access the IRS tax return information needed to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Students and parents may transfer their tax data directly into their FAFSA. It’s available 1-2 weeks after you file your income tax return electronically. It is highly recommended that you use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool for several reasons:
• It is the easiest way to provide your tax data.
• It is the best way of ensuring that your FAFSA has accurate tax information.

Step 5: Link to the Tuition Assistant Program (TAP) on the Web from your FAFSA Application (for New York State Residents)
After you complete the FAFSA, you will be taken to a confirmation page; click on the state application link to apply for New York State-based financial aid.
If you miss the link to the TAP application, you will receive an email from the NYS Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC) after your FAFSA is processed, with information on how to apply for TAP.

Step 6: Receive a Student Aid Report (SAR)
A few days after you complete the FAFSA you will receive an email with a link to your Student Aid Report (SAR). The SAR contains a summary of your FAFSA information and a calculation of your Expected Family Contribution (EFC) – the number used to determine your federal student aid eligibility. Review your SAR to see if additional information or corrections are needed. You can also access your SAR at https://studentaid.gov/.

Step 7: Verify Your Data
The Federal Processor selects a certain number of applicants for a verification process. If you are selected (which will be indicated on your SAR), you will need to submit requested documents to the Student Financial Services Office at St. Francis College.

Step 8: Receive Your Financial Aid Award Notification
Once your financial aid applications are completed and you demonstrate financial need, the financial aid office will send you an award notification to indicate the financial aid programs for which you qualify.

Cost of Attendance (COA)
When planning for college, you need to review the Cost of Attendance (COA), which includes tuition and fees, housing (room and board), transportation, books, supplies and personal expenses.

Expected Family Contribution (EFC)
Your Expected Family Contribution (EFC) is the amount you and your family can reasonably contribute toward yearly educational costs based on the information you supply on your FAFSA. Factors such as your family’s income, number in household, certain assets, taxes paid and the number of family members attending college are used to compute your EFC. Your EFC is used to determine the amount of federal financial aid you may qualify for, such as Pell, Federal Work-Study and subsidized federal loans.

Financial Need
Financial need is the difference between the Cost of Attendance and your Expected Family Contribution.
\[ \text{COA} - \text{EFC} = \text{Financial Need} \]

St. Francis College Net Price Calculator
To help determine the financial aid you may receive, a Net Price Calculator is available on the St. Francis College website. This tool calculates an estimated financial aid award package along with an estimated cost of tuition and fees.

Financial Aid Offer Letter
Based on your financial need, SFC constructs a financial aid package for you. The financial aid package may include various types of financial aid to help cover all or part of your college costs. If you have financial need, you may be eligible for grants, work-study and subsidized loans.

- Complete the FAFSA.
- Accept loans on your financial aid award letter.
- You must sign a promissory note.
- Complete an entrance interview, which provides you with information regarding the loan’s terms and conditions.

Additional information:
- If you request a Federal Direct Loan you may decline the loan later by notifying the Student Financial Services Office at the college.
- You do not need a co-signer to qualify for a Federal Direct Loan, and there is no credit check.
- Repayment periods vary from 10 to 30 years.
- Repayment begins six months after you graduate, leave college or drop below half-time study.

Financial Aid Eligibility

Attendance
To qualify for financial aid you must begin attending your classes. Attendance information is collected from your instructors and is used to determine whether you began attendance in each of your classes. The credits for unattended classes will not be counted when calculating your enrollment status for determining your financial aid eligibility.

Withdrawal
Federal financial aid is awarded with the expectation that you will attend school for the entire period for which the awards were intended. If you withdraw from all of your classes before you have completed the semester, the college will determine the portion of your federal awards you are entitled to receive according to a prescribed attendance formula. Withdrawing from some or all of your classes may also impact your eligibility for New York State financial aid for the current or subsequent semester(s).

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)
In accordance with federal and state guidelines and SFC policy, you must be making satisfactory progress in your program of study in order to remain eligible for federal and state awards. Your academic record will be evaluated at least once each year according to the satisfactory progress standards established for each financial aid program.

FAFSA and TAP School Codes
When filling out your FAFSA and TAP applications, you must provide a college code for each college where you wish to have your information sent. Listed below is St. Francis college federal and state code:
