

Adjunct Faculty Teaching Opportunities

Potential Teaching Disciplines:

- Communication Arts
- English
- Philosophy & Religious Studies
- Accounting & Business Law
- Management & Information Technology
- Biology & Health Sciences
- Chemistry & Physics
- Mathematics
- Nursing
- Economics, History & Political Science
- Education
- Psychology
- Sociology & Criminal Justice
- Foreign Languages, Fine Arts & International Cultural Studies

Summary: Candidates should have the ability and willingness to teach within their field, a wide range of introductory and intermediate undergraduate courses, and to a lesser extent, graduate courses.

Qualifications:

- Master's degree from an accredited institution in an appropriate academic discipline is required.
- Experience with on-line and hybrid teaching and related methodologies is preferred.
- Commitment to undergraduate teaching and cultural diversity is required.
- Candidates invited to interview will be asked to provide three letters of reference.

Please note that while we are commencing with recruitment efforts for adjunct faculty positions, it is understood that hiring is contingent on course availability, funding and enrollment.

About St. Francis College:

For over 150 years, the mission of St. Francis has been to provide an affordable, quality education to working class people who otherwise may not be able to attend college. St. Francis College is a private, independent, co-educational urban college whose Franciscan and Catholic traditions underpin its commitment to academic excellence, spiritual and moral values, physical fitness, social responsibility and life-long learning. We educate the whole person for a full, relational life, developing the students' talents and abilities for meaningful, fulfilling careers, as well as for collaborative, service-oriented leadership.

The College strives to offer ample opportunities for students to immerse themselves in the intellectual, cultural and professional opportunities afforded by New York City and to serve the needs of the local community in which they live and study. Our location in Brooklyn Heights provides a confluence of cultures and religious beliefs, mirroring our commitment to maintain and celebrate our diverse student body.

St. Francis College is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity employer and we are strongly committed to increasing the diversity of our faculty, students, and the curriculum. Qualified candidates of diverse ethnic and racial backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants can apply by clicking here.