

Position: Assistant Professor of Foreign Languages and International Cultural Studies (Tenure Track)

Department: Foreign Languages, Fine Arts and International Cultural Studies

Reports to: Department Chair, Foreign Languages, Fine Arts and International Cultural Studies

Anticipated Start Date: Fall 2018

Job Summary: The Foreign Languages, Fine Arts and International Cultural Studies department is committed to an interdisciplinary approach and its courses focus on a broad social and cultural context. Courses support a rich curriculum that is designed to promote critical thinking and writing skills. The normal teaching load per academic year is twelve credits in each Fall and Spring semester. This appointment will also include curricular development, research, student advisement, College service/committee work, and professional development.

Qualifications:

- Ph.D. in a relevant discipline from an accredited institution at the time of application is required;
- Candidates must have the ability to teach beginning and intermediate French, together with courses on French civilization and culture;
- Candidates must have the ability to teach all courses required in the College's International Cultural Studies major. Such courses include, but are limited to, Peoples and Cultures of the Contemporary World, which covers Western Europe, China, India, and Africa;
- Commitment to both teaching and scholarship is essential;
- Candidates invited to interview will be asked to provide three letters of reference.

Please note that while we are commencing with recruitment efforts for this position, it is understood that hiring will be contingent on funding and enrollment.

About St. Francis College:

For over 150 years, the mission of St. Francis has been to provide an affordable, quality education to working class people who otherwise may not be able to attend college. St. Francis College is a private, independent, co-educational urban college whose Franciscan and Catholic traditions underpin its commitment to academic excellence, spiritual and moral values, physical fitness, social responsibility and life-long learning. We educate the whole person for a full, relational life, developing the students' talents and abilities for meaningful, fulfilling careers, as well as for collaborative, service-oriented leadership.

The College strives to offer ample opportunities for students to immerse themselves in the intellectual, cultural and professional opportunities afforded by New York City and to serve the needs of the local community in which they live and study. Our location in Brooklyn Heights provides a confluence of cultures and religious beliefs, mirroring our commitment to maintain and celebrate our diverse student body.

St. Francis College is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity employer and we are strongly committed to increasing the diversity of our faculty, students, and the curriculum. Qualified candidates of diverse ethnic and racial backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants can apply by clicking here.