

Position: Assistant Professor of Information Technology (Tenure Track)

Department: Management and Information Technology

Reports to: Department Chair, Management and Information Technology

Anticipated Start Date: Fall 2019

Job Summary: Candidates should be strongly committed to teaching in an interdisciplinary undergraduate business and information technology program. Scholarly research and external grant activity is also required. This appointment includes research, student advisement, College service, and professional development. The normal teaching load per academic year is twelve credits in each Fall and Spring semester.

Qualifications:

- Ph.D. in management information technology, information systems, computer science, or relevant interdisciplinary field of study is required;
- Applicants from all fields of management information systems, information technology and computer science will be considered. Expertise in operations research and management, digital media, project management and information security is preferred;
- Candidates invited for further consideration will be asked to provide three letters of recommendation and at least two writing samples.

Please note that while we are commencing with recruitment efforts for this position, it is understood that hiring will be contingent on funding and enrollment.

About St. Francis College:

For over 150 years, the mission of St. Francis has been to provide an affordable, quality education to working class people who otherwise may not be able to attend college. St. Francis College is a private, independent, co-educational urban college whose Franciscan and Catholic traditions underpin its commitment to academic excellence, spiritual and moral values, physical fitness, social responsibility and life-long learning. We educate the whole person for a full, relational life, developing the students' talents and abilities for meaningful, fulfilling careers, as well as for collaborative, service-oriented leadership.

The College strives to offer ample opportunities for students to immerse themselves in the intellectual, cultural and professional opportunities afforded by New York City and to serve the needs of the local community in which they live and study. Our location in Brooklyn Heights provides a confluence of cultures and religious beliefs, mirroring our commitment to maintain and celebrate our diverse student body.

St. Francis College is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity employer and we are strongly committed to increasing the diversity of our faculty, students, and the curriculum. Qualified candidates of diverse ethnic and racial backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants can apply by clicking here.