

ST. FRANCIS COLLEGE
THE SMALL COLLEGE OF BIG DREAMS

Assistant Professor of Psychology (Tenure Track)

St. Francis College, Brooklyn (the “College”) is embarking on an ambitious plan to revitalize the College even as it remains true to its core mission: private, independent, co-educational, urban college whose Franciscan and Catholic traditions underpin its commitment to academic excellence, spiritual and moral values, social responsibility, and life-long learning. As a College rooted in a commitment to radical hospitality, to character formation, to inter-faith dialogue, to creating conditions so that students will learn the technical skills necessary to navigate a 21st Century workplace while never losing sight of the importance of ensuring that all students learn to cultivate their humanity, the College is expanding its offerings, its services and the ways it engages in and beyond its campus. In short, it is an exciting time to join the St. Francis College Community.

Summary: Reporting to the Department Chair of Psychology, this highly motivated professional teacher and scholar works with a diverse faculty and student body and is expected to teach 12 credit hours in each Fall and Spring semester. In addition, she/he will provide advising and research mentoring for undergraduate and graduate students and serve on departmental and College committees. Must be qualified by training and experience to teach both undergraduate and graduate level courses in general psychology, social psychology, statistics, experimental psychology, and to mentor undergraduate and graduate level thesis projects.
