Department of Nursing Full-time Faculty
Associate Professor or Assistant Professor or Clinical Lecturer

St. Francis College, Brooklyn (the “College”) is embarking on an ambitious plan to revitalize the College even as it remains true to its core mission: private, independent, co-educational, urban college whose Franciscan and Catholic traditions underpin its commitment to academic excellence, spiritual and moral values, social responsibility, and life-long learning. As a College rooted in a commitment to radical hospitality, to character formation, to inter-faith dialogue, to creating conditions so that students will learn the technical skills necessary to navigate a 21st Century workplace while never losing sight of the importance of ensuring that all students learn to cultivate their humanity, the College is expanding its offerings, its services and the ways it engages in and beyond its campus. In short, it is an exciting time to join the St. Francis College Community.

Job Summary: Teach nursing courses for the College’s vibrant and growing nursing programs, including the College’s CCNE accredited Baccalaureate Nursing program. Coordinate clinical placements and assignments, accreditation activities, and course and program assessments. Perform other essential departmental functions as assigned by the Nursing Department Chairperson. Specialization is open and full-time academic rank will be commensurate with experience and educational qualifications.

Qualifications:

- Master of Science in Nursing degree from an accredited institution of higher education is required.
- An earned doctorate in nursing or a related field is preferred.
- Current, unencumbered New York State RN license is required.
- 3-5 years’ of nursing education experience is required, preferably in a college or university setting.
- Commitment to undergraduate teaching and student-faculty collaborative research.
- Demonstrated ability in teaching, curriculum development and assessment.
- Evidence of effective interpersonal communication skills and ability to work with a diverse college community.
- A deep appreciation for, and understanding of, working in an inclusive, engaging and diverse college.
- Culturally sensitive, caring and friendly with a deep understanding and appreciation of a multi-cultural college community and the Franciscan traditions of St. Francis College.

About St. Francis College:

For over 150 years, the mission of St. Francis has been to provide an affordable, quality education to working class people who otherwise may not be able to attend college. We educate the whole person for a full, relational life, developing the students’ talents and abilities for meaningful, fulfilling careers, as well as for collaborative, service-oriented leadership. The College strives to offer ample opportunities for students to immerse themselves in the intellectual, cultural and professional opportunities afforded by New York City and to serve the needs of the local community in which they live and study. Our location in Brooklyn Heights provides a confluence of cultures and religious beliefs, mirroring our commitment to maintain and celebrate our diverse student body.

St. Francis College is strongly committed to diversity and inclusion on our campus and all qualified applicants will receive consideration without regard to age, race, creed, color, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, military status, sex, disability, predisposing genetic characteristics, familial status, marital status, status as a victim of domestic violence or any other characteristic protected by law. We are an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity employer and we are committed to increasing the diversity of our faculty, staff, students, and the curriculum. Qualified candidates of diverse backgrounds are therefore encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants can apply by clicking here.