

Accreditation Information

St. Francis College is chartered by the Regents of the University of the State of New York and is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education (“Middle States”), earning its first accreditation in 1959 and its most recent reaccreditation in 2009.

St. Francis College is a member of the following:

- Association of American Colleges
- National Commission on Accrediting
- Commission on Independent Colleges and Universities
- Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities
- Council for Advancement and Support of Education
- International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education
- National Association of Independent Colleges and Universities
- Association of Franciscan Colleges and Universities
- Brooklyn Independent Colleges
- Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce
- Downtown Brooklyn Development Association
- New York State Regents Accreditation of Teacher Education
- Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education

The College’s official Statement of Accreditation Status is available on the Middle States website, www.msche.org. Additionally, Middle States accreditation and status reports are maintained by the College’s Accreditation Liaison Officer:

Michele S. Hirsch, Ph.D.
Office of the Provost (Room 8312)
718-489-5455
mhirsch@sfc.edu

For additional information about the College’s accreditation status, or to file a complaint, please contact:

The Middle States Commission on Higher Education
3624 Market Street
2nd Floor West
Philadelphia, PA 19104-2680
(267) 284-5000