If the student's EFC (Estimated Family Contribution) is already zero (0), the professional judgment will not be reviewed, except in the case of a budget increase request, due to the fact that the student is already eligible for the maximum federal financial aid available.

 After November 1, 2017, a professional judgment for loss of income will not be considered until the 2015 tax return transcripts and W-2 forms are received.

Submission and approval of a professional judgment does not a guarantee a change in student’s financial aid eligibility. The Office of Financial Aid Administrator’s decision as to whether or not to make changes is final and can’t be appealed to the U.S. Department of Education.

*ALL DOCUMENTATION MUST PROVIDED**
(Please refer to 2016-2017 Professional Judgment Information for required documentation)

This appeal will not be accepted without documentation attached. Documentation should verify (prove) what you state as your reasons for the appeal. Failure to provide adequate documentation will result in your appeal being denied.

C. Professional Judgment Information for required documentation

The Office of Student Financial Services can use their professional judgment to make adjustments on your Student Aid Report (SAR) because of unusual circumstances. You will have to provide enough documentation to support any adjustments. The Office of Student Financial Services decision as to whether or not to make changes is final and can’t be appeal to the U.S. Department of Education. Listed below are examples of circumstances for which a professional judgment might be considered at Saint Francis College. Other circumstances may be considered if warranted. Documentation must be attached in order for the request to be reviewed. After November 1, 2017, a professional judgment for loss of income will not be considered until the 2015 & 2016 IRS tax return transcripts and W-2s forms are received.
