Tuition Differential for Special Programs

Tuition for Special Programs

In some instances, a student may enroll in an educational program that has a higher tuition rate than the current undergraduate rate. In such cases, a student will be responsible for any additional tuition and fees charged as a part of the program.

Combined Degree Programs

Tuition calculation

Combined degree programs in which a student will earn an undergraduate degree as well as a graduate degree, such as the B.S./M.S. in Accounting, will be charged a per credit tuition rate on the course level of each class. Undergraduate courses will be charged at a rate of $ 815 per credit and graduate courses will be charged at a rate of $ 940 per credit. The service fee applies to combined degree programs and will be charged based on the total number of credits taken in a given term.

In semesters in which 12 or more undergraduate credits are taken, students will be charged the undergraduate flat rate tuition up to 18 credits.

Financial aid eligibility for Combined Degree or Graduate Tuition

Please speak with Student Financial Services regarding your financial aid eligibility for semesters of study in which you are enrolled in graduate level courses. Not all federal and state aid programs may be used for graduate coursework.

St. Francis College scholarships and grants (including endowed scholarships) may not be used towards tuition for graduate level coursework or in the fifth year of a five year degree program.
